The men were proceeding on Spl. duty to being stationed or distributed on the road between Sagar & Tog when the accident occurred near Talaguppa. The circumstances were pathetic & the news was flashed to H.H. (by phone to Shimoga Secy) who generously offered a donation of Rs 500/- to the bereaved families of those killed. Article 353 of C.S.R. is perhaps intended to apply to the cases now under consideration & it is for consideration if the extraordinary pension to the families of these four deceased persons contemplated in clause (iii) of Art 353 of C.S.R. may not be granted in view of the fact that these 4 employees of Govt died while on duty and that in such circumstances Govt to order — ~~Art 347~~ These cases do not seem to come under Art 347 of C.S.R. as stated by the Comptr.

22 These papers relate to the question of granting relief to the families of four police officers who lost their lives as a result of an unfortunate accident to the bus in which they were travelling to join duty at Jog in connection with the visit of H.H. the Maharaja to Jog in February last.

23) The point for order is whether ~~the~~ only the Compassionate Gratuity admissible under the ordinary rules may be paid, or whether the cases may be treated as coming under the provisions of Arts. 353 & 355, M.S.R. and family pensions granted. The difference in value between the two methods of relief is indicated below:—

Name of deceased officer	Compassionate Gratuity admissible.	Family pension proposed
1). Syed Nasoor, Daffedar.	Rs 239-4-0	Rs 11-8-0 p.m. to the eldest Son for 12 yrs.

(3) Bharamappa Constable	Rs 168-12-0	Rs 8 p.m. to the widow for life or until re-marriage

24. The question in issue is whether family pension is admissible in these cases. Under Art. 353, M.S.R. a family pension would be admissible if the Government officer had been killed in the execution of his duty. The Comptroller holds that in the cases now under advertence, the claim would not be strictly admissible as ~~the~~ death ~~case~~ was due to a bus accident and travelling in a ~~bus in the~~ common conveyance like a bus cannot be considered to be of such a hazardous nature as to ~~~~ entitle the family to a pension. It is true that the police officials concerned were travelling in an ordinary conveyance which is in use by all travellers. One special ~~circumstance~~ circumstance in this instance seems to be that the unfortunate victims had no option but to travel in the bus provided for them by higher officers, and their journeying in that bus may perhaps be considered as an incident performed in the execution of duty and family pension allowed. ~~~~

The Chief Secy. also may be consulted.

28) I am inclined to take the view that the police Inspector officers & men met with their death in the course of their duty. They were travelling in a special bus engaged by the police, and the bus obviously was under the control of the Police officer in charge. The discretion of driving it cautiously may not have been given to the driver, as is made out in the I.G.P's letter (Flag V). The overloading of the bus was also not the fault of the driver. The men who travelled in the bus were there under orders and met with their death while obeying orders. This is a fit case

NOTE-Contn. Sheet.

Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying file of papers relates to the question of granting pensions to the families of the marginally-noted Police Officers who lost their lives as a result of an accident to the bus in which they were travelling to Jog in connection with His Highness's visit to that place in February, 1939.

1. Duffedar Syed Masoom
2. Constable Koragappa
3. Constable Bharmappa
4. Constable Thimmaiya

The Inspector-General of Police has recommended that in the circumstances in which these officers met with their death, their families may be admitted to the benefit of extraordinary pension under Article 353 iii, Mysore Service Regulations. The Comptroller, however, states that as travelling in a bus, which is a common conveyance used by all travellers, cannot be considered to be attended with extraordinary bodily risk, the claim for family pension is not strictly admissible and that only compassionate gratuity is admissible. He adds that if Government think that family pensions may be allowed in these cases, pension would be admissible to the families of the officers on the scale indicated below:-

Name of deceased.	Member of family to whom pension is to be paid.	Amount of pension and terms of payment.
1. Syed Masoom ..	Abdul Kareem, eldest son.	Rs.11-8-0 per mensem for 12 years from 3.2.1939.
2. Thimmaiya ..	Chandri, daughter aged 5 years	Rs.8/- per mensem from 6.2.1939 for life or until marriage. (The amount recommended to be kept in Government Savings Bank till she attains majority).
3. Bharmappa ..	Hanumanthamma, wife of deceased.	Rs.8/- per mensem from 3.2.1939 for life or until re-marriage.
4. Koragappa ..	Narayana, eldest son	Rs.8/- per mensem for 12 years from 6.2.1939.

In view of the fact that these officers were travelling in a bus specially engaged for the purpose by the Police under the control of a departmental officer, it is considered that they may be deemed to have got killed while in the execution of their duty and their families allowed the benefit of Extraordinary pension under Articles 353 iii, and

GEN. & REV. SECRETARIAT. 360 29 JULY 1939 FINANCIAL BRANCH.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith for orders of Government an application for extra-ordinary pension on behalf of the family of the late Syed Masoom Police Daffedar No.1 of Hosanagar Taluk received with letter No.Pen.C.189/38-39 dated 12-6-1939 from the Inspector General of Police, I have the honour to state as follows:-

It is stated by the Inspector General of Police that the Police Daffedar died on 2-2-1939 as a result of a bus accident near Talaguppa, while he was proceeding to Jog Falls on special duty in connection with the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore and he has accordingly recommended a family pension to the widow of the deceased.

As ~~the~~ travelling in a bus which is a common conveyance used by all travellers, can not be considered to be attended with extra-ordinary bodily risk, the claim for a family pension is not admissible under article 347 M.S.R. Hence the payment of a compassionate gratuity only is admissible in such cases as provided in Appendix of M.S.R. In this case, a compassionate gratuity of Rs.239-4-0 (Rupees two hundred and thirty nine and annas four only) is admissible to the widow for the benefit of herself and her children and is subject to her executing the usual security bond.

If however, Government think that a family pension is to be sanctioned in this case, a pension of Rs.11-8-0 per mensem from 3-2-1939 will be admissible and has to be sanctioned in the name of
